

VITTORIO VECCHIO

After graduating in Political Science, he accumulated a series of relevant professional experiences that contributed to his growth and development in the financial field.

In 2018, he reached a significant milestone by assuming the role of Chief Financial Officer at ILPRA Spa. In this leadership position, he demonstrated solid financial skills and a deep understanding of business dynamics, contributing significantly to the company's financial management by also becoming Investor Relator from 2019.

Starting in 2020, he further expanded his influence and responsibilities, taking on the role of Board Member with responsibility for the Administration, Finance and Control Department. In this key role, he helped define the company's administrative and financial strategies, ensuring effective financial management and sound corporate governance.

His career has been characterised by a steady growth path and the ability to take on roles of increasing responsibility in the financial sector. His experience and in-depth financial expertise continue to be key assets for the success and financial stability of ILPRA Spa.
