

GIANLUCA ARCIDIACONO

After graduating and registering as a Chartered Accountant, he started his professional career in various professional and consulting firms, gaining solid experience in the field of business consulting.

Equipped with an entrepreneurial perspective, he also successfully founded a new professional structure that provides ordinary and extraordinary assistance to business operators, guaranteeing complete coverage of corporate needs.

Currently, he holds highly responsible roles as bankruptcy receiver and judicial commissioner in several ongoing insolvency proceedings. His expertise and attention to detail are evidenced by his careful handling of complex corporate situations undergoing restructuring.

In addition to these activities, he has held prominent positions within national and international companies, serving as a Statutory Auditor and Chairman of the Board of Auditors. Among the companies in which he has held key roles, his current position at ILPRA Spa stands out, confirming his leadership and expertise in the field.
